

LEARNING STARS

MISSION STATEMENT

Learning Stars is an independent Community Group run for and by people with learning difficulties. People are encouraged to have their say about the things that are important to them.

The main objective of the group is to increase the inclusion of people with learning disability into their community. This is achieved by increasing the confidence of members through a programme of educational activities in local community rooms and church rooms.